Hanger Clinic Patient Athletes Head to Tokyo

8/16/2021

AUSTIN, Texas, Aug. 16, 2021 – Several athletes who receive orthotic or prosthetic care from Hanger Clinic are preparing to travel to Tokyo, where they will represent the United States in competition against the best para athletes in the world. Events will begin Aug. 24 and run through Sept. 5.

Hanger Clinic patients participating include first-time athletes like 16-year-old Ezra Frech, the youngest member of the USA Para Track and Field Team, as well as returning athletes, like four-time medalist and Women's Sitting Volleyball Team member Lora Webster:
