

Reasons To Attend the Hanger LIVE Global Partners Summit Therapy Partner Track

The Therapy Partners in Care Track at the Global Partners Summit—an extension of Hanger LIVE—offers therapists an immersive, in-person CEU experience focused on the unique care needs of lower limb prosthetic patients. This interactive program blends education with networking, creating space for collaboration and clinical growth.

- Meaningful Peer Engagement
 - Connect with a nationwide network of therapists, clinicians, and peers who share your passion for patient care. Collaborate, problem-solve, and exchange ideas.
 - "Beyond grateful to have attended this amazing event, met new vendors, partners, incredible clinicians, and learned of so many amazing patient stories."
 - "It was great to be around peers who share the same passion. To problem solve and share treatment ideas was invaluable."
- Educational Offerings and Hands-On Skill Development
 - Earn up to 12.5 continuing education hours through sessions led by thought leaders and experts in rehabilitation. Gain practical, evidence-based strategies and hands-on experience that you can immediately apply.
 - "I appreciated the concrete, evidence-based treatment ideas and patient experiences. Having specific information and hands-on experience was extremely beneficial."
 - "Seeing individuals with amputations demonstrate mobility tasks and share daily life experiences gave me confidence and inspired me to participate in more advocacy efforts."
- Inspiring Events and Keynote Sessions
 - Kick off the program with powerful patient stories that highlight resilience, recovery, and the human spirit. These sessions remind us why collaboration and innovation in care truly matter.
 - "Watching and listening to the patients share their stories was powerful and impactful in many ways."

Attendee Satisfaction

In a previous Therapy Partner Track, attendees rated their likelihood of recommending the program at 9.0 out of 10. This exceptionally strong score reflects the program's proven ability to deliver valuable education, meaningful networking, and inspiring experiences that participants are eager to share with others.

Self-Assessment Results

Following a previous Therapy Partner Track, attendee self-assessments showed an improvement of nearly one full point on a 4-point confidence scale. This meaningful increase indicates that participants left the program feeling significantly more prepared and capable, underscoring the strong educational impact of the course.
